

USING BUSINESS ARCHITECTURE FOR IMPACT ASSESSMENT

When there is a change to the organization (e.g. a new strategy, product, regulation), if we know...

...which value streams are impacted and the stages within them...

VALUE STREAMS

CAPABILITIES

...and the capabilities impacted within those stages...

...then we can understand the impact on the rest of the business architecture...

...and the impact on operational people, process and technology.
